Congratulations to Sean

Pearce for his award winning short story entitled 'It's a Hard Life' now published in a book of short stories called 'The Right Stuff' to be launched in specially selected schools throughout the year. The Asham award promotes excellence in literature through competitions and events and sponsorship for emerging writers of all ages and in particular to encourage the development of the short story by linking winners of the Asham award with well established writers. Well done Sean!

St Martins Easter Experience

Saturday 7th April

Please put this date in your diary, now, and please make it your top priority for the day! We are holding an Easter Experience on Easter Saturday evening at 6pm, 7th April in St Martins Church. This is for the whole family, but especially it's for your family, your friends, your neighbours, and others who believe that Easter is about chocolate, chickens and bunny rabbits. We will tell the true Easter story through music and testimony and share a meal together afterwards. There's no ticket price, but we will ask for a donation towards the cost of food etc. Please support your music group, your children and your church by being there, with your guests, on Easter Saturday!
